Agenda Items		Discussion	Action items
1	Introductions	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Completed ✓ Melia Hughes was introduced as a new Systems Tri-Lead. The Tri-Lead group agreed unanimously earlier in the month to extend an invitation for her to become a Tri-Lead and she has accepted. Melia also has the voice of lived experience, and she is employed by Kitsap County Parent Coalition. She brings a wealth of knowledge of both services and resources.
2	Announcements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Review of agenda • Invitation for open discussion by youth/family • Ice breaker: What are you thankful for in the past year? 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Agenda reviewed. ✓ Open discussion was invited. ✓ Ice breaker exercise completed.
3	Presentations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Emergency and Disaster Preparedness, presented by Nicole Latson and Annette Lombardo. ✓ WISe Data, presented by Sam Agnew 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Emergency and disaster preparedness presentation is postponed until a later date. ✓ Sam A presented WISe data from the WISe QMP Quarterly Report generated 10/23/2023. Although the data contains lots of numbers and percentages emphasis

		was focused on what actually influences the data. Data that seems to be missing or just not collected is information regarding providing referrals to youth and families during WISE services and at what point referrals are provided prior to discharge from WISE services. The group discussed when, during the WISE episode of care, would it be possible and appropriate for WISE teams to refer youth and families to FYSVRT or provide other care coordination related referrals.
4	Update on January 2024 FYSVRT Family Fun event planning.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Sam A informed the group that our next event is planned for January 27th, 2024 at the Community Center in Quilcene. The facility has been reserved for noon-5:00 PM. Sam and Annette L plan to meet with the facility director tomorrow at 10:00 AM as part of a FYSVRT outreach. The youth art activity will be making snow globes and FYSVRT will provide an assortment of food and beverages. The WISE services supervisor at DBH has expressed interest in participating in the event and sharing event information with DBH WISE clients. Salish FYSVRT will develop a flyer and provide event promotion throughout Jefferson County, with a special emphasis on schools.
5	Open discussion	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Several attendees commented on the value they find in FYSVRT and how much they appreciate having the opportunity to share their voices and feel heard. ✓ The group discussed the awkwardness of the program name “FYSVRT” and expressed a desire to come up with something new. We will continue to revisit this topic and work toward identifying a new program name that can function under existing FYSVRT guidelines.
6	Ad Hoc items:

7	Suggestions for Salish FYSPRT meeting topics	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Rebranding our name to something other than FYSPRT. ✓ Increasing Youth and Family membership in our FYSPRT program.
8	Feedback regarding FYSPRT meetings or other FYSPRT events.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Feedback was received and is very positive regarding people feeling heard and that their voice matters. Positive comments were provided regarding our program slogan “Share Your Voice” and how that message needs to be re-enforced as we try to increase our membership.
9	Youth/Family On-line reimbursement submissions a. Please submit no later than 5th of the following month.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Completed
