Due to a significant storm and weather this meeting ended early. Although a total of 21 attendees were initially able to join the Zoom meeting, there was a rapid and significant number people who lost power at their homes and workplaces due to heavy wind and rain. By the time Paul Davis concluded his presentation on WISE data over two thirds of attendees had been disconnected. Other attendees were experiencing poor audio or video connection quality. The convener made the decision to end the meeting early as a result.
