

Our Mission and Vision...

We seek to continually strengthen the quality and quantity of mental and behavioral health services available to help all youth and families in time of need.

Salish FYSPRT is committed to providing a welcoming, all-inclusive, transparent environment where all voices are heard. Where individuals and communities see positive results increase family and youth well-being.

Salish FYSPRT is and will remain a source of current, accurate, and helpful information. We will continue to learn and grow together.

FYSPRT Goals...

1. Ensuring an inclusive climate for all voices to be heard, and finding value in the shared experiences of others.
2. Identifying and supporting mental and behavioral health system improvements through collaborative engagement, based on input from youth and families who have utilized services.
3. Sharing a message of compassion and understanding to those who feel unheard, that we will hear your voice.

How We Accomplish These...

FYSPRT is an open forum for families, youth, and systems partners to come together and:

- Openly discuss available mental/behavioral health services and resources.
- Seek increased understanding of better ways to ensure youth and family needs are met.
- Listen to the message of youth, families, and service providers.
- Share in order to provide and receive clear feedback and system information.
